ACADEMICS

Expansion of each academic department during this year, has helped to improve the curriculums offered at H.P.C. Independent study programs were offered in each of our departments, for the first time in 1969-70.

A new administration policy on class attendance was passed which allowed each department the right to pass its own requirements on cuts.

More liberal rules on the dress of students on campus was a victory for the student body. This was an experiment, which helped the students receive more freedom.

Cooke Hall was opened to the English Department, allowing more courses to be taught and even in air-conditioned comfort.

TRUSTEES PROVIDE LEADERSHIP

A total of twenty-five members make up the Board of Trustees at High Point College. Under the chairmanship of Mr. Holt McPherson, the board meets periodically during each semester to determine the official policies of the college. Assisting Mr. McPherson are Mr. Horace Hayworth, vice-chairman; Mr. Charles Hayworth, Treasurer; and Dr. Wendell Patton, Secretary.

Dr. Patton, one of the best known educators in North Carolina, received his education at Wofford College, University of Georgia, Purdue University, and Colgate University.

President Patton is currently working hard on the Golden Decade program which is scheduled for completion in 1974. Besides being President of the college Dr. Patton finds time to enjoy moments with his family in their lovely home on West College Drive.

DR. PATTON IS A BUSY MAN

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Academic affairs are under the direction of Dr. David W. Cole, Dean of the College, and Dr. E. Roy Epperson, Assistant Dean of the College. Registration, degree requirements, admissions, and financial aid are some of the aspects of HPC under the heading of academic affairs. The decision to suspend with the evening school next year came from this department.

*Dr. Harold Conrad,
Dean of Academic Planning.*

Dr. David W. Cole, Dean of the College.

*Mr. David H. Holt,
Registrar*

*Mr. Robert Wells,
Director of Financial Aid.*

Mr. Benjamin Brockwell, Director of Admissions.

*Mrs. Nanci Motsinger,
Dean of Women.*

*Dr. Louis B. Pope,
Director of Guidance.*

STUDENT AFFAIRS

Mr. Robert E. Phillips, Dean of Students.

With Dean Phillips at its head, Student Affairs is in charge of health, housing, social affairs, security, senior placement services and discipline. Although sometimes only thought of as having disciplinary duties, the members of Student Affairs also worked closely with students in planning the new student snack bar and interdorm visitation.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Co-ordinating the various operations in college relations is Mr. Lawson Allen, Director of Public Affairs. Headquarters for the Public Relations activities is located on Montlieu Avenue, about one block west of the campus. Mr. Allen's main task is to oversee all fund-raising, gifts to the college and the news bureau.

Mr. Lane Kerr, Director of the News Bureau is assisted by Miss Ingram in putting out many college news releases. Executive Secretary of Alumni Affairs, Mrs. Beverly McCabe, helps to improve the Golden Decade program through increased alumni participation.

Mrs. Beverly D. McCabe, Executive Secretary of the Alumni Association.

Miss Louise Adams, Assistant to the Vice-President for Public Affairs.

Mr. Lane Kerr, Director of Information Services.

Mr. Lawson Allen, Vice-President for Public Affairs.

Mr. Wesley W. Gaynor, Bursar

Mr. Earle G. Dalbey, Vice-President in Charge of Business and Financial Affairs

BUSINESS AFFAIRS

As head of the Business Affairs at HPC Mr. Earle Dalbey is responsible for all spending by the college. His office is in charge of federal aid programs, insurance, investment programs, and plant and grounds maintenance. It is well-known on campus that Mr. Dalbey is the one to see if you want something done.

In the maintenance department Mr. Thompson and his staff work to keep HPC in good condition. They were aided this year by the space they obtained with the addition to the maintenance building.

Mr. Frank Caulfield, Food Service Manager

Mr. Jack Thompson, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds

STAFF

*Mrs. Bill Green
Secretary to Student Personnel*

*Mrs. Charlotte White

Founded in 1948, the American Humanics Foundation is a non-profit organization which serves to prepare youth for professional leadership in youth agencies. This foundation has supported the Humanics Department at High Point College since it was started here in 1965; however, the college is undergoing a gradual shift to total support of the department. Forty-eight majors in 1970 prepared for positions with the Boy Scouts of America, 4-H Clubs, YMCA, YWCA, and Probation Agencies. Majors found a deep sense of self-realization and achievement through the satisfaction of seeing the young people grow in character through their efforts.

Mr. L. E. Moody, M.A.
Department Head

HUMANICS AND SPECIAL PROGRAMS

During the fall, sophomore honors students studied drama in informal discussion sessions held at Dr. Conrad's home. These students enrolled in the course upon invitation extended to them as a result of their attainment of a 2.0 grade point average or better. In the spring the topic of study varied as did the discussion leaders. Members met with different professors who were able to lead special discussions in their fields to provide interesting work for the semester.

In the New Horizons Program a course in Philosophy and Culture was taught by Dr. Weatherly. This course enabled students to follow individual study on something of interest to them in the general philosophical areas of culture, society, science, art and religion. A course in Afro-American History was conducted by Dr. Gratiot during this mini-semester program. Eleven students participated in reading and independent study. Understanding of Black American's present problems as influenced by the past was emphasized.

Dr. Conrad and Professor Pritchett lead the discussion in the Sophomore Honors class.

Steve Hornberger and Rich Boyd prepare some work for their mini-mester Black History course.

Mr. Clyde Lowe, M.B.A.

Mr. Joseph Robinson, M.S.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Watson, M.Ed.

BUSINESS

Semester break brought another trip to New York for ten students in the Business Department who attended the Securities Market study. Instruction began October 15, and ended with the trip. A new course, under the direction of Mr. James Nelson, was initiated during the semester break. The Cooperative Work study Program was limited to an enrollment of ten students, who worked for various companies related to their particular field of study. At the end of their employment period, they were given an evaluation of their work by employers.

Mr. Wilson Rogers, M.B.A.

Bowed heads denote the concentration required for business courses.

*Mr. James L. Nelson, M.S.
Department Head*

Dr. William R. Locke, Ph.D.
Department Head

Dr. Earl Crow, Ph.D.

Mrs. Dorothy Hays, M.R.Ed.

RELIGION

Increasing the number of majors offered by the Religion Department, a major in Philosophy was added to the majors in Religion and Christian Education. Headed by Dr. Owen Weatherly, the new Philosophy Department provided its students with opportunities to hear lectures by such contemporary philosophers as Dr. Brand Blanchard.

Two new seminars were offered for seniors in 1969, one in philosophy, directed by Dr. Weatherly, and one in Christian Education, directed by Mrs. Hays. Also, in the New Horizons program two exceptional courses, Theology and Symbol, and Philosophy and Culture, were offered by the expanding department.

Dr. Owen Weatherly, Ph.D.

PHYSICAL SCIENCE

Striving to improve the quality of instruction, the Physical Science Department has added a new course, Current Chemical Topics, a two-hour course taught in the manner of a seminar. Directed by Dr. Epperson, the department held an individual research program during the semester break, which included presentations by invited chemists.

Mr. Thomas Conally, B.S.

*Dr. E. Roy Epperson, Ph.D.
Department Head*

Sciences and Haworth Hall go together.

Mr. Charles Forney, M.S.

Miss Betty Jo Clary, M.Ed.
Department Head

Mr. Charlie Futrell, M.Ed.

Mr. Robert Davidson, M.Ed.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

With the selection of a new department head, Miss Betty Jo Clary, and the hiring of a new instructor, Mr. Charles Futrell, a new year in the Physical Education Department began. Under Miss Clary's leadership, a new course in kinesiology, was offered during the New Horizons semester. Kinesiology, the study of the muscles of the body and an analysis of human motion, was also added to the regular requirements for physical education majors.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

With the addition of Mrs. Kayser to the faculty, this department has been able to add a new course to its curriculum. Latin American History will be offered jointly with the History Department. Mrs. Kayser, an authority on Latin American civilization and culture, will teach the course.

Dr. LeVey, the Department Head, retired from High Point College at the end of the year.

Mr. Thomas Scott, A.M.

Mr. Jaime Villegas, M.A.

Mr. Nathaniel Yargorough, A.M.

HISTORY

One of the objectives of the History Department is to aid students in developing understanding and appreciation of the past in relation to the present world. Under the leadership of Dr. A. Paul Gratiot, department head, a course was offered during the minimester in Afro-American History, as a part of the cultural enrichment of this department.

MATHEMATICS

Revising the math curriculum has been a major job for Dr. Myrick, head of the Mathematics Department. The revision is an attempt to modernize the department and to improve the quality of the major. With eight entirely new courses the resulting curriculum parallels closely the recommendations of the Mathematics Association of America.

Mrs. Shirley Rawley, A.M.

Mrs. Elaine Stalter, M.A.

ENGLISH

For the first time the English Department offered courses in history of the language and also in linguistics, which is unusual for a school with the enrollment of HPC. The department boasts quality teaching on all levels. The staff has attended professional meetings such as those of the Southern Association of Modern Language and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

DIVISION OF BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

Combining the former departments of Sociology and Education and Psychology, the Division of Behavioral Sciences and Education is under the leadership of Dr. Matthews, the division head. Dr. Thacker is the head of Teacher Education. The combination of these departments has created a good opportunity for interdiscipline courses. A committee has been appointed to study the possibilities of offering such a course next year.

BIOLOGY

With the addition of a new faculty member, Mr. Fred Yeats, who specializes in the morphology and systematics of plants, and will receive his doctorate upon completion of his dissertation, the Biology Department had a good year. Ten new binocularscopes and five new dissecting scopes helped the students, especially in embryology and botany.

While attending a conference at Montreat, N.C., with representatives from most colleges in western North Carolina, Dr. Weeks and Mr. Brown got some ideas for teaching the freshman course. However, not much change was made since our course seemed as relevant as most.

MORING AND SCOTT HEAD MARSHALS

Selection as a marshal, one of the twenty HPC juniors with the highest over-all scholastic averages for two years is the greatest honor that can be bestowed upon a member of the Junior Class.

Being a Junior Marshal, however, is not just an honor. During the year the marshals also provide service to HPC by distributing assembly bulletins, checking assembly attendance, and ushering at various HPC functions. The highlight of the marshal's year comes when he helps at graduation exercises. The activities of the Junior Marshals were co-ordinated by Mildred Moring and Judith Scott, co-chief marshals.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Inviting into membership those persons of high character and scholastic ability who are going into education, Kappa Delta Pi is an honor society with high status on campus. Membership carries much influence for those who are applying for a position in the education field.

ALPHA PHI GAMMA

Under dedicated leadership provided by President Sherry Franz, Alpha Phi Gamma, the national honorary journalism fraternity on campus, gained needed unity and enjoyed a good year. New members the first semester gave added strength as did those invited second semester. As its major project, the fraternity supported the three publications on campus, especially sponsoring the APOGÉE. For one of their most interesting programs members enjoyed having Mrs. Lane Kerr speak to them.

Officers: Sherry Franz, President; Beth Holcomb, Secretary; David Bishop, Vice-President; Mr. Lane Kerr, Sponsor; John Keets, Treasurer.

GOLDEN DECADE PROGRESSES

The beginning stages of the new maintenance building began in November.

Mid-winter cold slowed progress on the temporary student center.

Newly renovated and air-conditioned Cooke Hall provides classrooms for Business and English students.

With many Golden Decade achievements already completed the program showed continuing advancement in 1969-70. The program, which was initiated in 1965, has progressed into Phase II of a three part development.

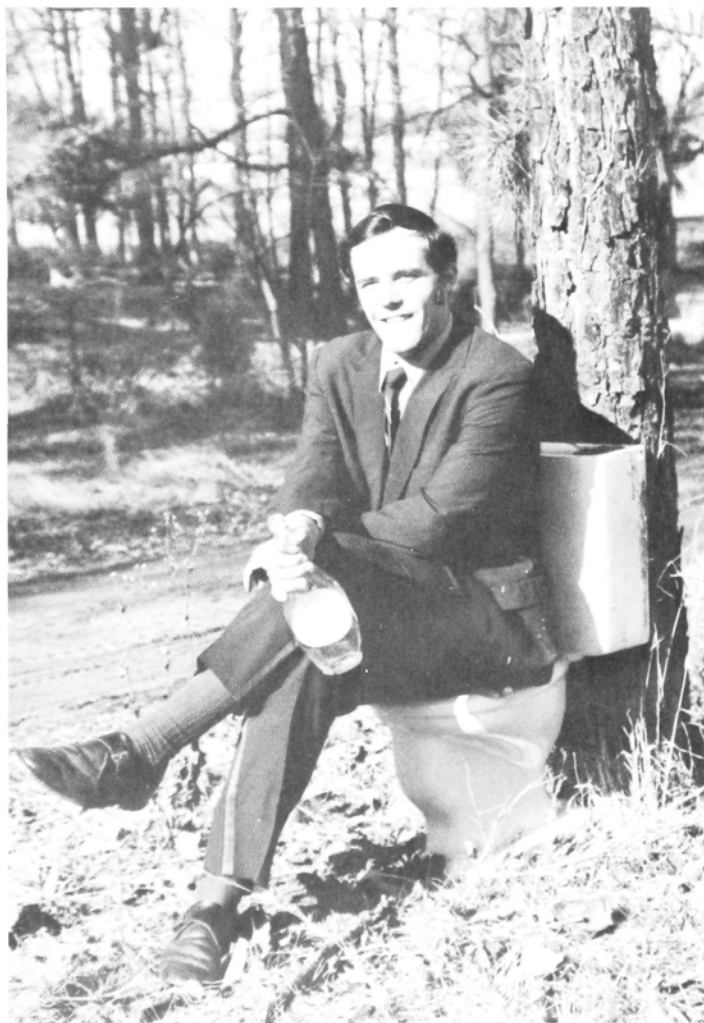

Opening in March of 1969 the Infirmary was completed over the summer and was in full operation throughout the year.

Phase II's major undertaking will be a new Student Union Complex which is to be completed in 1974. A partial step toward this Student Union was accomplished when the temporary building was erected behind the maintenance department. This building was used for storage and relocation of the college snackbar.

Renovation of Cooke Hall was also completed, thereby allowing the English Department to move into new offices on the second floor. Now completely air-conditioned, Cooke Hall houses classes in Business Administration, Physical Education, and English.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN

I.F.C. GOVERNS FRAT ACTIVITIES

A major part of the Greek activities on the campus are regulated by the I.F.C. The Inter Fraternity Council is the governing body of the four social fraternities: Delta Sigma Phi, Lambda Chi Alpha, Pi Kappa Alpha and Theta Chi. Enforcing of rules, holding of trials, setting fines and placing penalties are a few of the Council's duties. Each year rush regulations are set and this year several precedents in punishing rush violations were enforced.

During the second semester the Council worked on rewriting the constitution to update the rules to present standards. As a follow up to last year, the I.F.C. planned another Greek Week.

Seated: Rick Jensen, Vice President; Rick Shumate, President; Ken Shook, Treasurer. Standing: Charles Dietrich, Secretary.

PANHELLENIC RULES OVER RUSH

Seated: Nancy Patterson, Kathy Zellmer, Pam Catron, Lyn Nevitt, Linda Hinkleman, Wendy Williams. Standing: Cindy Foster, Caryl Beam, Lorraine Scronce.

Conducting the rush program for freshmen and transfers is one of the major activities of the Panhellenic Council, the coordinating group of the four sororities on campus. Working as one body, members of the sororities create a few weeks of frenzied, but enjoyable memories that the rushees long remember.

The Council encourages high social and scholastic standards and helps to unite the sororities in the true Greek spirit.

The Junior Panhellenic Council, whose membership consists of girls from the four pledge classes, functions to prepare sorority girls to take their places in the Greek system at HPC.

Sororities on campus cooperate to support the Panhellenic House.

Jean Wenk, Treasurer; Marty Brooks, President; Susan Brown, Secretary

The Age of the Alpha Gams . . . it began with rush when Gamma Eta took the best of the freshman girls, and it continued through the year . . . Duda and her inseparable Delta Sig pin! Armstrong, did you have a good time at the Lambda Chi Drags? Berryman's love life? Mary Moses, how's Kay these days?! Jowdy practices for becoming an airplane pilot! Paula finally decides on Preston. Turtle enjoys her beer in salt and pepper shakers! Doss goes at a snail's pace. Wanda makes cheerleading with no practice. Marta — say something — silence couldn't be that golden!! Pooh, don't you worry — when your ship comes in, there won't be a dock strike; there just won't be a dock! Lulu, are you really a hippie? Deb, did you ever have to make up your mind? Nim finally makes it to first base with Nick. Bobbie, where did you say Chowan is? Elliott, I dare you! Corkie makes trips to Yale — and to Lums, and to the drags, and . . . Susan Brown finds difference between HPC and Duke. Janie and Wendy, what's so great about popcorn. Kathy — money, money, money — poverty, poverty, poverty! York becomes a December bride. Zellmer, you're teaching kids to sing? Bonnie and Pam, how's the Sea Dip these days? Jane and her friend Dave!? Mayer, the worry wart. Pickel picks a Dilly. Ruth wins her first case with Rosainne's.

And it continues through the years . . . more girls, more fun, more laughter and tears, and more friendships. Most of all sisterhood . . . THIS IS ALPHA GAM.

DELTA ZETA OF DELTA SIGMA PHI

Pledges — Kneeling: Dick Reish, Bill Ridings. Standing: Jim Blake, Cliff Lloyd, Butch Koerner, Mike Robbins.

Delta Sigma Phi launched the 70's with the same characteristics: Brotherhood, Loyalty, Citizenship, Scholarship, and Leadership, that proved us so strong in the 60's. And on the High Point Campus this is particularly true, for Delta Sigs call "Quorum" at SGA meetings. Leadership has been our most singular achievement in recent years — and undoubtedly will continue to be, for we believe leaders should serve.

We recognize, though, the necessity for diversity, and it is with this in mind that Delta Sigs turned to intramurals — beating the Theta Chi's in basketball (the first time in three years?), manning a massive front line in football, wobbling home in track, and exhibiting natural elan in badminton and ping-pong — bastions of intramural conflict!

But it has been a good year — especially for Pooh-Pooh (he'll bare all facts under separate cover to prove that Love makes strange bedfellows), Tiny, Chief, and The Captain.

The ONLY question that remains is: WHEN will they find something for Sig Carle to do?

Delta Sigs started the year off with parties, renewing old friendships and making new ones, and ended the year firming up friendships at the beach.

As another year closes, Kappa Delta's dreams were once more fulfilled: Kathy had her novel published, Pika's First Lady finally got flowers, and Scottie and Seagrove set up housekeeping. What more can you ask for? Many surprises came our way... Donna and Wendy adopted a new theme song, "Double your pleasure, double your fun." Paskal is still drilling for oil or is she "Eaton" her heart out?... Olive just can't get rid of her new title, Miss Sick... Weird Squeeze's main squeeze got weird scars... hum?... Buff reignited flame to take her off poverty row... Bullin played the name game... Willis laughed all the way to state or was it to the Downtowner? It was a LONG night, wasn't it Sue?... Pat's trapped in the jungle... it's six hours from Atlanta to High Point - Is it worth it Beamers?... Wood fell in love with the circus... Lani's living up to her motto "School's a drag, love's my bag."... Karen has been heard chanting Carolina's fight song to the tune of "The Wedding March"... Sanders stopped singing "Thank you, John" and started singing "Ain't No Big Thing." There's a lot to sing about third Yad-kin... Jan really "Doug" Lums... There's always the V.A., Deanie... Flower power doesn't work, does it, Janie... Who's "leaving on a jet plane," Joyce? Dianne, are those stars in your eyes or diamonds on your hand?... When's your next candle-light Shaw?... We hear Chatty Cathy's been invited to a "pahty." V.L.'s taking a bartending course at Lums.

To the big twelve we say good-bye and on to the beach to get together and celebrate life!!!

GAMMA ZETA OF PHI MU

The end of another year comes to a close, but we will never forget the wonderful memories of Rush, the Pledge Dance, Homecoming or Phi Mu Weekend. But these activities are only a small part of Phi Mu — for it's the friendship and love we found together that we will remember most.

Some Seniors left early — Leslie and Louise sought new roommates in December while Ellen and Ann graduated early to begin teaching. But some stuck it out! Nash is staying in H.P. — hum? Ann and Carol move closer to “home,” while Nevitt, Marty, Robin and Dana plan “homes” of their own.

The Juniors become Seniors and start thinking of professions of their own. Sally thinks quite alot about the future, while Pam takes action. Betsy is content as Nancy and Susan stay on the go. Coach Matheny has no problems, while Arnold considers her “Dear Abby” profession. Denver is all set as a Cockney Bar Maid and Gritt as financier.

The Sophomores look back at all they have done. Jeri and Pat remember the homecoming float while Lynne thinks of grades and Ginny of Buster. Rip, Barb, and Cindy think mostly of jewelry!!

But whatever our thoughts or plans, or wherever we go, we'll all never forget the Bond we share as sisters in Phi Mu.

DELTA GAMMA OF ZETA TAU ALPHA

Pledges — Seated: Bev Mechell, Gail Chipman, Mary Patterson. Standing: Peggy Thomas, Sue Cline, Pat Evans, Laurel Lopatnikov, Frances Roach.

Since the fall of 1899, when nine young girls founded Zeta Tau Alpha at Longwood College in Farmville, Virginia, Zeta has been steadily growing and has become one of the strongest women's fraternities today. In these seventy-two years of Zeta's existence, thousands of young women have shared in an experience of fruitful group living. Within Zeta each girl has an opportunity to develop her interests and abilities against a background of companionship and understanding. This is the secret of a progressive sisterhood in an everchanging world — promoting and encouraging the best qualities in the personality of each individual girl — not forcing any girl to conform to a standard image. Instead, Zeta Tau Alpha is a sisterhood for the modern woman who is seeking a better future.

EPSILON ALPHA OF THETA CHI

Tradition, brotherhood, reverance, and parties again this year dotted the horizons for Epsilon Alpha of Theta Chi. By pledging sixteen men and graduating ten men, the high quality of brothers and the strength in our numbers will remain highly qualified "to extend a helping hand" to our school and community.

Parties at Pusey's, Cain's Valley, Hippy Party, New Years at Kadie's . . . Pledges take Sigs; Brothers win again. Draft gets 86% of Brothers under one hundred. Theta Chi water falls on Pika's . . . Frazier checks again — Flight 211. Alan eats more grapefruit . . . Stag and drag . . . Theta Chi plans own entire Homecoming, Sweetheart and Dreamgirl . . . Four more keys, Cleve.

In a final salute we want to give our graduating brothers parting advice. Nickell, don't lose your leash. Ennis, buy stock in North State Telephone Company. Gouge, we hope Greek Week is forever. Bonnaffon, keep your shoes on. Keets, go Greyhound. Von Dreele — Black Label, Busch, Iron City, etc. Seward, only your hairdresser knows for sure. Pearson, stay off rooftops at the Mardi Gras. Pusey, paint your hall. Eastlack, lose weight; Fords don't have widetracks.

The "Cherry Picker" and victorious chariot crew celebrate.

Skip Pearson meets with resistance at the New Orleans Mardi Gras.

ALPHA DELTA THETA

Our year with Alpha Delta Theta began with our annual coke party to acquaint all girls on campus with the activities of our sisterhood. After initiation, six new sisters presented their big sisters with small ceramic ring boxes and a poem written by one of the group. Retreats in the fall and spring at Millbrook Farm were highlights of the year. The natural surroundings provided an excellent atmosphere for fun and fellowship. We ended fall semester with a visit from Santa Claus (alias Hadley) at our Christmas Dinner. Heart Sisters opened spring semester with everyone secretly delivering happies to her Heart Sister.

As "Sisters in the service of God" we were active in service on campus by straightening the clubrooms on Saturday nights, helping with registration on Parent's Day, as well as serving at faculty teas. Packages and cards (Remember the twelve days of Christmas?) were sent to our servicemen in Vietnam.

As we look back at the close of another year, we remember the fun, fellowship, and service which makes us truly "Sisters in the service of God."

MU XI OF ALPHA PHI OMEGA

Representative of the world's largest Greek organization, Mu Xi Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega participates actively in HPC life. Members follow the international organization in the challenge to make themselves better citizens. They do this through leadership, taking active roles in campus and community organizations; friendship, helping with freshman orientation and serving as guides for visiting prospective students; and service, helping the campus, community and nation through such activities as aiding in national charity drives, sponsoring community projects, and serving at faculty teas, Parents' Day gatherings, and Homecoming reunions.

Social functions are not forgotten among the service projects, however. Members will never forget the Anniversary Ball at Sedgfield Country Club, the rush party and the Christmas Party — to say nothing of the fall camping trip! With all these activities another fun-packed year of reaching out the hand of service and the arm of fellowship passed for the brothers of APO.

CHOIR SINGS LOUD AND CLEAR

Looking forward to the annual spring tour, the High Point College Concert Choir began practicing early. Before going on tour they sang at Wesley Memorial Methodist Church for the District Evangelistic Conference and for the Cool Yule Program at Christmas time.

The Madrigalians, with additional voices toured North Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee during the spring vacation, stopping at Chattanooga, Nashville and Louisville, as well as several North Carolina cities.

Officers for the choir were Linda Truex, President; Jenny Bond, Vice-President; and Ramah Hall, Secretary.

Making their last appearance for 1970, the HPC Choir sang Melchior Franks' Motet, "A Mighty Fortress" and the Alma Mater at graduation to make the special occasion an even more formal one.

HUMANICS STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Sharing ideas at a fall retreat concerning "Mankind is My Business," the members gained insight into their own thoughts as well as understanding of problems common to all mankind. All members of the Humanics Department make up the membership of the Association which meets two Thursday nights a month. Meetings provide speakers, refreshments, and entertainment which encourages unity between all members.

A practical course is provided for those who would like to do work related to their field. Others received experience as they visited Schiff Reservation and the National Headquarters for Boy Scouts of America, and attended the South-eastern Region Meeting of the YMCA in Atlanta, Georgia.

CO-ED ACTIVITIES PROVIDED BY W.R.A.

Officers – Ellen Grassi, Secretary; Trudy Matheny, Vice-President; Cheri Palermo, President; Darlene Real, Treasurer; Jane Goodwin, Publicity Chairman.

Interested sportswomen make up the membership of W.R.A., which is advised by Miss Betty Jo Clary. Members have athletic fun after meetings held in the gym or outdoors. One of the high points of each year is the spaghetti dinner held at Miss Clary's Home.

In the fall, members sponsored a powder puff football game which was well-attended. A co-recreational swim night was planned for the spring semester. A service rendered by the girls is the posting of bulletin boards in the gym. Emphasizing athletics and good sportsmanship members ended the year.

S.N.E.A. ADVANCES EDUCATION IDEALS

SNEA members focus attention on Secretary Sheila Melton as she makes a point clear.

Its membership open to anyone interested in education, the Student National Education Association welcomed many students into the group in 1969. The club and interested civic concerns sponsored two delegates to the Regional SNEA meeting in New Orleans this fall. The Southeastern Regional Project undertaken by the Calvin Wiley Chapter as the year's project was "Student Voice on Campus" designed to educate local student leaders to a variety of curriculum innovations that are relevant to their respective schools. In April a big dinner for student teachers and people interested in education was given.

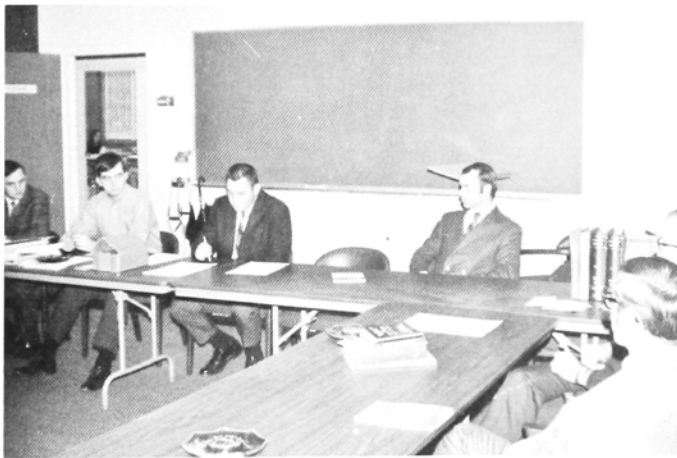

Officers — Candy Walser, Second Vice-President; Sheila Melton, Secretary; Ann Davis, Membership Chairman; Gail Mabe, Membership Chairman; Ginny Scoggins, Treasurer. Seated: Bob Latham, First Vice-President. Absent: Ellen Reed, President.

S.A.M. REVIVED AND REJUVENATED

Seated: Butch Lipe, Wayne Woodell, Mr. Joe Robinson, Royce Flint. Standing: Kenneth Nail, Richard Harbison, Sandy Turner, Dennis Conner, Brian Ditzler.

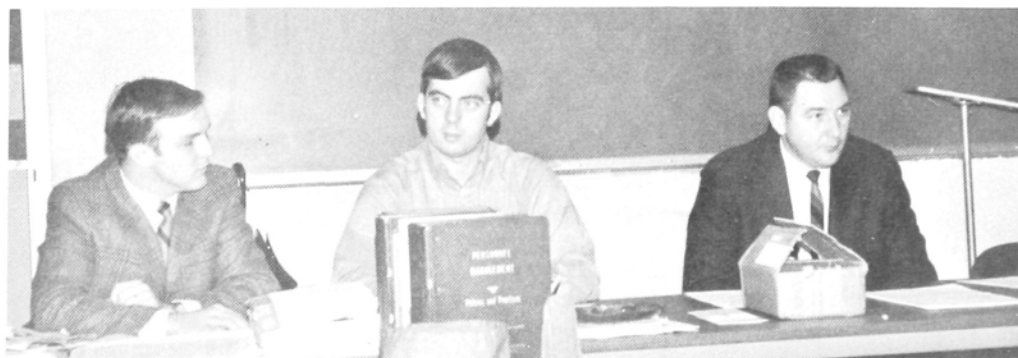

The High Point chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management was brought back into existence this year by Mr. Joe Robinson. Royce Flint, a senior Business Administration major served as President of this organization which is designed to acquaint students with the world of business management. Butch Lipe was elected Vice-President while Wayne Woodell labored at the Secretary-Treasurer position. Meetings were held on the first Monday of the month and a tour of a local business or factory was held periodically throughout the year. A highlight of these tours was a trip to the Joseph Schlitz brewery in Winston-Salem, where free samples were distributed. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company and Western Electric, Inc., also provided interesting tours for the members of S.A.M.

P.E. MAJORS CLUB SERVES

With the objective of producing professional physical education teachers, the P.E. Majors Club, sponsored by Miss Clary and Mr. Futrell, held many activities in 1970. The club sponsored its annual Co-Rec Night in the fall. Eight of its members attended the state convention at East Carolina of the North Carolina Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. Delegates were also sent to a leadership conference in the spring at the University of South Carolina.

The P.E. Majors Club annually presents the Athletic Awards Banquet. In 1970 the banquet was held at the Albert Pick Hotel. Speaker was Dr. James Hamilton, president of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics. Also sponsored by the club is the concession stand at home basketball games.

Funds for last year's portable fence came from the Majors Club treasury.

HI-PO OVERCOMES PROBLEMS,

Because our paper was unable to print, High Point College lacked the communication that is needed between the students, faculty and administration during the first semester. Jane Mailleue started the year as Editor; however, Jane was forced to resign due to excessive debt which had been incurred before her term of editorship. A complete investigation was completed and the Hi-Po could not print until the second semester. Working with a limited staff Jo Deininger recruited a new staff and resumed publication early in the second semester. Working with a limited staff and a strictly regulated budget — the newspaper continued to print in the tradition of the past All-American award winning Hi-Po's.

APOGEE FINALLY FINDS FUNDS

Attempting to establish a community of writers in which an exchange and an understanding of creative literature could be found, Apogée sponsored the Thursday afternoon seminars in creative writing.

From the works submitted by these writers, Dr. C. E. Mounts and Willie Shaw selected the basic pieces for publication. Due to needed funds being supplied by the College – in addition to S.G.A. funds – faculty members were allowed to submit creative works for the first time. With the combination of student and of faculty writers, Apogée was instilled with a more meaningful approach to the art found in creative literature.

This year's seminars in creative writing were well attended and highly prosperous.

STUDENT UNION GROWS

Fall coffeehouses were successful as always, but not so with the Halloween spook show.

In its second year of operation, the Student Union continued to improve the entertainment on our campus. Through concerts, coffeehouses, and movies we were treated to better campus activities.

Number one on the list of improvements has to be the monthly parties at the Moose home. Increased interest in the pool room led to better facilities, along with more fun. The new Student Union building, even though temporary, was another step forward toward normal standards.

Orientation of the Freshman was well organized by the Student Union to get the year off in a joyous atmosphere; too bad it didn't stay that way!

Experimental campus movies were tried but met with little success, as did several other holiday parties.

Time and action are the major ingredients in developing this organization, give it both and we shall see more improvements in the future.

STUDENT LEGISLATURE

In early October, the Student Legislature voiced support that United States troop replacement by well equipped South Vietnamese forces be executed as quickly as possible; suggested that students dissatisfied with the war effort hold open discussion and steadfastly maintain and exercise their privilege as students to attend class; and communicated with Senators Sam Ervin, Jr., and B. Everett Jordan and Representative Richardson Preyer.

Other major proposals passed by the Legislature included the addition of student members to the following faculty committees — Student Personnel, Educational Policies, Assembly and Artist, Library, and Publications; the removal from the penal code of archaic disciplinary provisions restricting off-campus activities; the strengthening of the student government budgetary system and the elimination of financial difficulties incurred by The Hi-Po and Apogée; The attainment of a Judiciary Council decision declaring the S.G.A. President's inability to veto constitutional amendments; and the provision of refrigerator service to students.

Standing: Sandy Turner, Nate Cagle. Seated: Mike Current, Benton Dry, Trudy Matheny, Alan Prather.

JUDICIARY COUNCIL

Functioning as a branch of the Student Government Association, the Judiciary Council has original jurisdiction, trying those cases referred to it by Dean Phillips and faculty members, and appellate jurisdiction, trying those cases appealed to it from the Men's and Women's Dormitory Councils. The nine justices and the Chief Justice represent the four academic classes, the Men's and Women's Dormitory Councils and the Day Students' Council. The positions of prosecutor and secretary are filled by application.

Steve Kennedy, Chief Justice

Drinking violations lead to quick expulsion.

DORM COUNCIL ENFORCES DEMERITS

Plagued by turnover in membership, the Men's Dormitory Council managed to remain intact and to regulate the conduct of the men's dorms. The council consists of three elected officers plus the head proctors and house managers of each dorm. Percy Hundley served as President of the Council, with Bill Webb, Vice-President and Calvin Cobb, Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. McMeekin-Kerr, Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Bennett served as resident counselors which gave them advisory authority in dealing with the Dorm Council affairs.

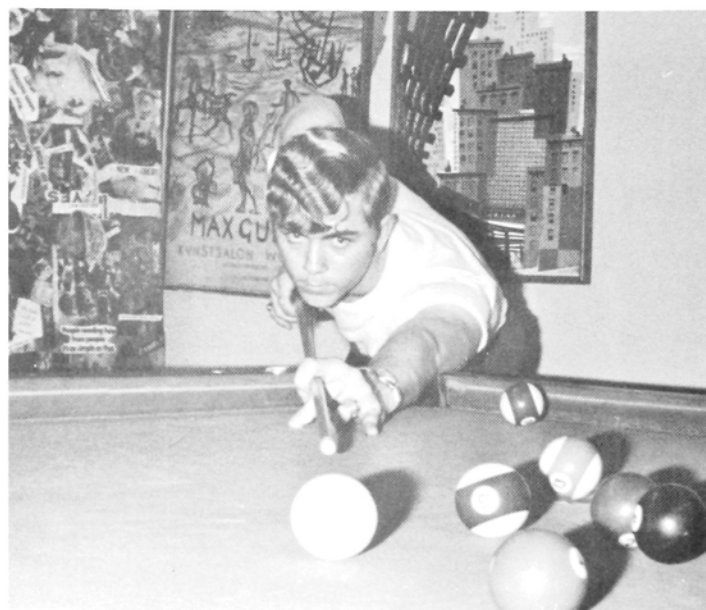

Council members helped freshmen become acquainted with the new rules and also enforced the demerit system of dormitory regulations. A color television was placed in the Co-ed Dormitory lounge due to the combined efforts of the campus dorm councils.

Council member Brian Ditzler keeps a sharp eye on the girls of Women's Hall from atop the library.

G.D.I.'S ENJOY BANNER YEAR ON CAMPUS

Suite 202 of the Coed Dorm served as an early meeting place.

Dennis Miller scores the winning T.D. over the Theta Chi's.

The Hot Dogs defeated the Theta Chi in football and kept this sign as a souvenir of the happy victory.

G.D.I. — an abbreviation which fits about 75% of High Point students. The Independents banded together to combine forces in an effort to unite the majority of students.

The most significant development was the formation of athletic teams for intramural competition. Independent teams won football, track, tennis (singles and doubles), badminton, ping-pong, and basketball. The Hot Dogs were the most successful, followed by the Cougars, Roaches, and the Osses. 1970 was definitely the year of the G.D.I.'s in intramurals.

CONDUCT OF CO-EDS

Revamping the Freshman Counselor system and working on general improvement in the dorms have been the main concerns for the Dormitory Council of the girls' dorm complex. A new rule concerning Freshman closed study was made: second semester freshman girls who have an average of "C" or better do not have enforced closed study. The council is led by Carol Clause, President; Nancy Bedle, Vice-President; Sherry Sullivan, Secretary; and Becki Gibbs, Treasurer.

Pat Twitty, Carol Clause, Nancy Bedle, Lani Chisman, Ginny Scoggins, Mary Ann Shaw.

CONTROLLED BY DORM COUNCIL

Finding discipline an easy task in 1970, it was necessary for the Council for the Coed Dorm to give few demerits for noise; other problems that were anticipated did not exist. The girls encouraged the passing of an open visitation rule and were instrumental in obtaining permission for one open house before Christmas. Officers were Becky Proehl, President; Beth Woods, Vice-President; Vicki Seay, Secretary; and Barbara Rawley, Treasurer.

Under the direction of Coach Bob Davidson, the 1969 Cross Country team made a repeat conquest of the District 26 NAIA Championship. An upset victory over North Carolina Central University in the District, gave the Panthers a return trip to the Nationals in Oklahoma City.

A tenth place finish in the State Meet was rather disappointing; however, Coach Davidson received the Coach of the Year award in our district. Eric Noren and Walter Mantz served as this year's co-captains. Mantz was selected 2nd team All-District, while Noren, Lloyd Davis, Grinch Johnson and Richard Litchford were chosen 1st team All-District.

In the 10,000 meter Lexington to Buena Vista, Virginia road race, Davis placed 17th and Noren 19th.

PANTHERS CAPTURE CHAMPIONSHIP

Coach Bob Vaughn, faced with a year of rebuilding, found victories hard to come by this season. Danny Witt and Joe Colbert were the only players with any experience, both playing guard positions. Witt gunned his way to several new school records, while Colbert was forced to the sidelines with foot injuries. John Kirkman, Joe Wilson and Steve Allen gained valuable experience in the front court for the Panthers. Tubby Smith and Rick Foelber were counted on to play the swing position of guard and forward. Tom Gill, Tom Davis, and Phil Butler scrapped and fought well in their infrequent playing time, as did center Bill McGhee.

In the High Point Classic Tournament we were able to capture our only championship of the season. A disappointing seventh place finish was highlighted by victories over Elon, Appalachian (Homecoming), and Catawba. With a strong nucleus of the players returning and the addition of red-shirt Gary Brown, Coach Vaughn and Assistant Coach Davis will have to hope for improvement.

DANNY WITT — AN EXCITING SCORER

Number 11 on another quick drive to the hoop.

Danny Witt, a slender guard from Baltimore, Maryland, scored 43 points in the final regular season game to set a new school record for total season scoring. Gene Littles held the mark at 725 until Danny chalked up 756 points. Including the tournament game, Danny now officially holds the standard at 788 points.

In the process Witt eclipsed Danny Sewell's season scoring average of 959 with an astounding 26 points per game. Many of these points were accumulated at the charity stripe where Dan shot over 90%, placing in the top five in the country (N.A.I.A.). In reward for his accomplishments, Witt was selected to the All Conference and All District all-star teams.

CAPTURE "69" CONFERENCE PENNANT

Scott Morgan blasts one during the pennant winning season of 1969.

A fourth conference championship may be in store for the 1970 Panther nine. Pitching strength will be the key to this year's success. Dennis Miller, who had the best E.R.A. on the staff last year, John Euler, Ron Slingerman, Bill Hegland and Jack Curling should carry the burden of mound duty. Reick Foelber, a freshman, is expected to be this year's mainstay, replacing All-Conference veteran Joe Kaub who has left school.

The infield is headed up by All-American candidate Nick Perlozzo at first base, with Bobby Hickey at second base, Lyle Padgett at short and Ron Slingerman at third. Grazing in the outfield will be veterans Mark Gebicke and David Mitcham. Gebicke hit 323 last season and Mitcham tied the school record for most R.B.I.'s in a season. Jim Taylor, Jim Downs or Mike Cornelison will be found in the right field pasture.

The catching duty falls into the capable hands of junior college transfer Fred Grice. The loss of All-American Don Hickey behind the plate will be hard to replace, as it will be to replace Kaub, Scott Morgan and Darrell Rich.

The 1969 season featured a 27-16 record earning regular season and conference championships. The team won 10 out of the last 11 games enroute to winning these crowns. In the conference tourney Hartman's diamond nine came out of the loser's bracket to win, which was a first in conference history.

TENNIS PROSPECTS MUCH IMPROVED

Chip Eisele, Mike Smith, Bob Joiner, Tom Linton, Javier Sanjines, Coach Ben Brockwell.

Coming off a 1969 season of 4 wins and 16 losses, Coach Brockwell is looking for considerable improvement this spring. These hopes are based on the fact that all of last years' players are returning, with the addition of a transfer and several talented freshmen.

Javier Sanjines appears to be one of the top, if not the top, players in the Carolinas Conference and District 26. Javier will play Number 1 with Chip Eisele Number 2 and Mike Smith Number 3. Bob Joiner and David Eisele appear to have the inside track on the other two spots.

Tom Linton, George Freeze, and Terry Flanagan also have high hopes of helping make the 1970 Panther netters conference champs.

Conference Meet — Fourth
District Meet — Third

George Jones "flies" over the bar on another six foot attempt.

With the addition of ten new members, the Track and Field team should be able to improve on last season's fourth place conference finish. In District 26 competition our cindermen managed a third place finish during the 1969 season.

Eight solid veterans will return to make up a solid nucleus. Discus, shot put, and pole vault will be our weakest events, however improvement is expected. On the bright side, district champion in the javelin throw, Gary Markland returns. Freshman Calvin Steed will provide depth in the long and triple jump, as will George Jones in the high jump.

The finest group of sprinters in HPC history, Dennis Bowley, "Speed" Steed, Mike Lewis, and Tommy Davis should break records galore. Dave Soloman looks good in the 440 sprint and should receive distance support from Eric Noren and Lloyd Davis, milers. Other distance standouts include Rich Litchford, Mike Johnson and Russ Jones. District Champ in the high hurdles Bill Webb, will find competition from Harry Melrose and Walter Mantz.

Lewis, Bowley and Steed sprint to a close finish in the 100 yard dash.

Andrews High School was nice enough to let the Panthers practice on their new all weather track for the 1970 season. Home meets for our runners were held at Millis Stadium and at the Andrews track.

Highlights of the season included a trip to the University of Tennessee for an Invitational and to Lynchburg, Virginia for a relay meet.

Additional help for our team came from basketball players Joe Wilson and Tubby Smith. Wilson concentrated on the shot-put and discus, while Smith showed tremendous potential in the triple jump and broad jump, as well as the high jump.

FELLOWSHIP TEAMS

Robyn Decker and Angie Miller enjoy making use of the recreational facilities available in the "barn" at Millbrook.

Through group recreation members not only learn new games to teach the youth, but also get to know each other better.

Composed of students who are interested in working with church youth groups throughout the state, the Fellowship Teams give guidance instruction in recreation, worship, program planning and organization. While on weekend visits, team members stay in the homes of church members.

In September a retreat was held at Millbrook Farm to train the members in various areas of instruction. The training sessions were led by leaders in the Methodist Church. However, all was not work! Swimming, sports, singing, good food, and fellowship all added to make up a very special weekend. This year, due to an influx of enthusiastic new members, there were six teams with six or seven members each. Rewarding visits were made to Rutherford College, Conover, Camp Mt., Shepherd, and Laurinburg during the first semester and to Granite Falls, Forest City, Mocksville and Charlotte during the second. The teams hoped to extend their program of youth work by holding an Easter egg hunt for underprivileged children from the High Point area. The year closed with a second retreat to Millbrook to share achievements and experiences and to unwind before final exams.

S.C.A. REVIVES EVENING DEVOTIONS

Beginning the year with a picnic for a small but enthusiastic group at City Lake, the Student Christian Association carried out a full program on campus. Weekly devotions became more effective under the leadership of Chaplain Mullinix. In the fall, the Finch Lecturer, Dr. Carlyle Marnie, was very well accepted by the student body. The Christmas Program, which took place in the foyer and on the steps of Roberts Hall featured the Second Shepherd's Play, chamber music and caroling.

Early in the spring the S.C.A. took charge of "The House" after the use of the house was obtained through the combined efforts of several religious groups on campus. Religion-in-Life Days featured Red Smith, a cartoonist, and The Sons of Thunder, always popular at HPC. The Fine Arts Department sponsored a fence painting as an outlet for self-expression during the days of religious emphasis. Looking forward to a busy summer, the S.C.A. sponsored Summer Job Opportunities. Several employer representatives from High Point, other cities in North Carolina and other states were present.

Well-publicized on campus, the S.C.A. picnic provided an opportunity for many to meet the new chaplain on campus.

CHAPLAIN BRINGS CHRISTIAN UNITY

Reverend Mullinix discusses a topic of current interest with several of H.P.C.'s concerned students.

After several years of planning and campaigning, HPC students welcomed Mr. Mullinix to the campus as their first chaplain this year. He has varied duties on campus, including serving as advisor to the S.C.A., the Fellowship Teams, the United Methodist Student Movement and the Baptist Student Union. Responsibility for all religious services on campus, such as the Evening Vespers, also rests with him. Other ministerial duties that are his are counseling students, acting as a liaison between the church and the college, assisting in student orientation, and visiting the infirmary. With his wife for company, Mr. Mullinix enjoys sponsoring Kappa Delta Sorority and singing with the Madrigalians.

NEW YORK ROCK AND ROLL ENSEMBLE

A traditional highlight of the fall semester is the Fall Weekend. This year the weekend of October twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth was selected to serve as the festivity period. On Friday evening in Memorial Auditorium the New York Rock and Roll Ensemble presented their music in a successful concert. A small but enthusiastic crowd listened to the music of the group which was billed to be the next Blood, Sweat and Tears. The Ensemble, a group of talented men, were surrounded by a psychedelic light show put on by Buddy Gabriel and crew. HPC's first full light show was colorful and well-presented. Crowd response covered a wide scale of variation due to the unusual type of performance.

Saturday night was the second part of the weekend program. The Moose Lodge on North Main Street provided the setting for a highly successful "beer bash." All beverages were included in the ticket price, which led to several friendly drinking rivalries. Large numbers of couples supported the dance, which was the first complete success for the floundering Student Union.

Fall Weekend was a well-planned and well-executed affair. The N.Y.R. & R.E. appeared, the Moose dance was a success, and, for a change, our students actually had some campus entertainment.

A variety of musical instruments were used by the group to provide the listeners with a wide variety of sounds.

Several original songs were presented in the concert.

HEADLINE FALL WEEKEND SHOW

The concert started the weekend off on Friday.

Long hair, swift fingers and lots of noise were characteristic of the ensemble.

MONTHLY ASSEMBLY POPULAR

Trying a new policy HPC began having only one required assembly per month on the first Wednesday at the ten o'clock period. Evening programs were continued and students were urged to attend them. The required assembly was used to continue the traditional programs such as Convocation, the Finch Lecture Series, presentation of the contestants for Homecoming Queen, the tapping ceremony for the Order of the Lighted Lamp, presentation of the yearbook, presentation of the intramural championship trophy to the Theta Chi's, presentation of athletic teams, and the Senior program. Students appreciated the monthly assemblies much more than they had the required weekly assemblies.

The best part of assembly is usually when 10:50 arrives.

Mr. Tom Watson delivers a message on the urban renewal program.

Secrecy, suspense and candles characterize the Lighted Lamp Ceremony.

The pros and cons of the Vietnam conflict were discussed by this panel.

This assembly drew a rare packed house.

"FALL COFFEE HOUSES ENTERTAIN"

On tour from Canada, Rings and Things brought an experience in psychedelic folk-rock to the High Point College Coffeehouse Circuit. The group combined their original work with conventional songs, and along with an unusual and inventive light show by HPC students, they created a refreshingly sophisticated atmosphere. Acclaimed on campus, and giving rise to a feeling of student unity, the group related to their audience through a vibrant personality, and the often requested Judy Collin's song, Suzanne. The feelings of friendship and communication that evolved during those last days of October still bring a warm feeling to those of us who remember the Rings and Things coffeehouse.

Long hair, loud music and happy people were in abundance at the remodeled Student Center.

A special light show was included in the program.

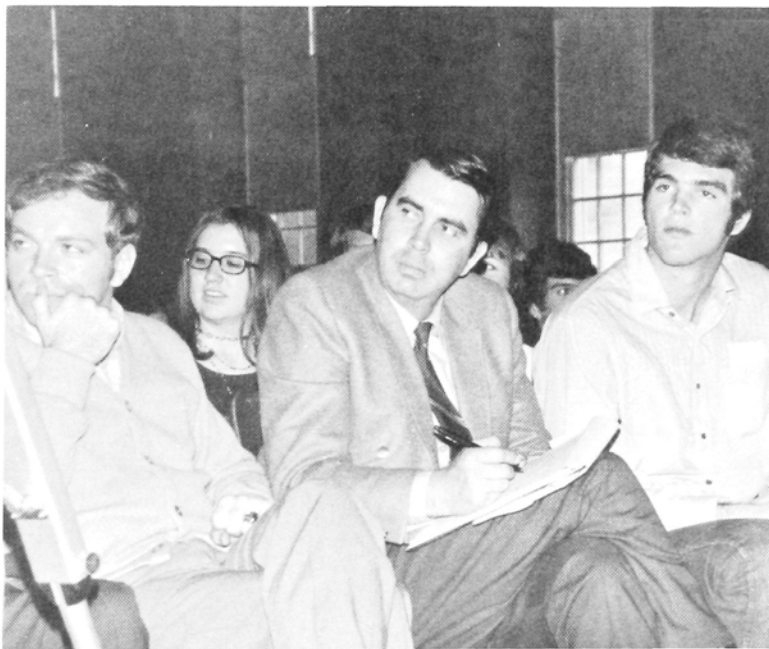

Excellent publicity helped make the entertainment a huge success.

MANY ALUMNI RETURN TO

During a mystical period in every HPC year the lawn in front of McCulloch Hall sprouts many fraternal floats as Homecoming flourishes. This is the beginning of the daylong festivities which some people still feel the next day! The float of Delta Sigma Phi won that fraternity first place in the annual competition, with Alpha Gamma Delta taking second place.

A slight disappointment met the students head on that afternoon as the First Edition was forced to cancel out their appearance because of unfortunate circumstances.

The sadness did not last long, though, as the basketball celebrations followed that evening with the High Point Panthers upsetting the Appalachian Mountaineers 84-81 to cap the festivities.

Preceding the game was the presentation of the Homecoming Court which was made up of the senior class representatives, Joyce Kait of Alexandria, Va., Donna Hastings of Bethel, Del., and Linda Sanders of Asheboro, N.C.; the representatives of the junior class, Nancy Easterling, of Charlotte, N.C., Wendy Duda of Alexandria, Va., and Carol Myrick of Greensboro, N.C.; the sophomore representatives, Carolyn Dean of Cambridge, Md., Martha Donnington, of Chatham, N.C., and Susan Hastings of Bethel, Del.; and the freshman class representatives, Debbie Landrum of Wilmington, Del., Dana Johnson of Rockville, Md., and Mary Anne Rafferty of Potomac, Md.

SUCCEED IN '70

TOP: Brian Ditzler, President; John Keets, Vice President. BOT-TOM: Nadine Sadler, Secretary; Ann Davis, Treasurer.

After eight semesters, a couple of summer sessions, and maybe a night school term or two, Seniors settled down to thoughts of graduation. Traditional black cap and gowns were again worn at graduation in 1970.

The year was full of surprises and changes: a new student union, the Hi-Po affair, inter-dorm visitation, the draft lottery, and assemblies only once a month. These all led to making 1970 a most successful year for all.

JUNIORS JUBILANT

Stepping closer to the ultimate goal of graduation, Juniors became more absorbed in their course of major study, than in previous years.

High point of the year occurred in early December when the class rings arrived from Josten's, Inc. Comparison of rings was a common custom among students in the Class of 1971.

With much of the base laid for his future, the Juniors look forward to next year as the end of a long road to graduation.

SOPHOMORES

*STANDING: Larry Breeden, President; Ken Shook, Vice President.
SITTING: Jan Henry, Secretary; Ken Beck, Treasurer.*

Sophomores adorn some freshmen with those beautiful striped beanies.

Opening the year on the right foot, the Sophomores provided adequate leadership for the Frosh Orientation program. The class officers earned the right to antagonize the freshmen with those beautiful striped beanies.

Registration, language labs, accounting tests, English Lit, and choosing a major occupy the days and nights of a hectic Soph.

Many of the class members find it fun to advise and misadvise the freshmen, because after all they are seasoned veterans of the college academic battles.

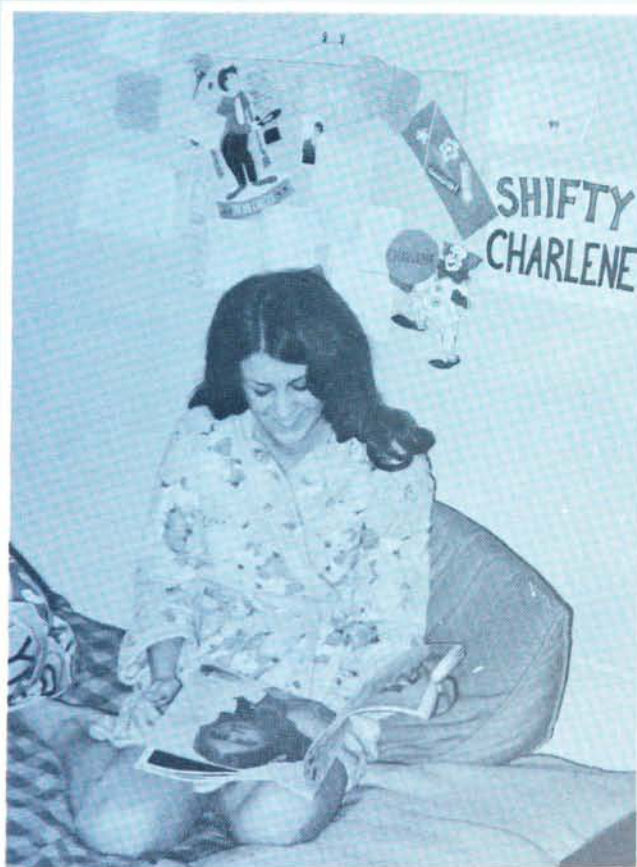

Characteristic of the second college year is the sophomore slump and this class had it the same as all others but lasted through to think of better things in the future.

SURVIVE SLUMP

Many Sophomore girls manage to escape from Women's Hall and rise to the "high rent" districts, however a few must remain to console the lowly Freshmen.

FRESHMEN FIND FRIENDS,

Orientation this year was complete in all details from placement tests to a party at the End Zone in Greensboro. The frosh were treated to the best social atmosphere of the entire year during their first week on the campus.

Beanies, Greek rush, intramurals, Biology labs, library orientation and Dr. Myrick's Math 141 math tests will always be remembered by the Class of 1973.

Gerry Van Hoy, Treasurer; Robert Messick, President; Molly Wetmore, Secretary.
